

Covenant Partner

It is our heartbeat to see more people in more places experience greater freedom in Christ. We long for our churches and ministries to be filled with free-in-Jesus believers, activated like never before to do what the Lord is calling them to do. We relentlessly pursue our mission of offering freedom to a broken world, because we know it is God's heart and that He alone is the answer. Yet we also know the deep level of brokenness in our churches and communities.

With this in mind, we equip local churches both in the United States and overseas on a monthly basis so that they can offer freedom to their people, their churches, and their communities. We strive to build a strong Network of Wellsprings teams knowing that God has created us to be better together.

As we journey together in this incredible ministry of leading people towards greater freedom in Christ, we are asking churches and ministries to become "Covenant Partners" with Wellsprings of Freedom International. This agreement offers mutual accountability, support, and encouragement to those who choose to enter into this partnering relationship.

Who are Covenant Partners?

Covenant Partners are those who have been trained by Wellsprings of Freedom International certified trainers and who adhere to the WFI model of ministry that is set forth. They consistently lead sessions for those in their church and community.

Once a team is considered a Covenant Partner, they become an official member of "The Wellsprings Network." The Wellsprings Network is comprised of more than 40+ WFI teams from across the country and around the world doing the same type of freedom ministry in their local context. _____ initial Why Would We Want to Become a Covenant Partner and Join The Wellsprings Network?

Two big reasons – mutual support and accountability! As a non-profit ministry, we value the ongoing relationship that the Holy Spirit forms between us and those we train. With our years of experience in this field, we are able to better resource you and walk you through the process of helping a client find freedom with utmost effectiveness.

For many evangelical churches and ministries, their biggest fear in freedom ministry is that it will go astray. The accountability structure that we provide offers a built-in safeguard to keep the ministry on track, biblically-sound, and focused on mission.

What You Can Expect from US as A Covenant Partner?

- We covenant to varying degrees of support, depending on your stage of development as a team.

ESSENTIALS OF A WELLSPRINGS NETWORK TEAM

FREEDOM SESSIONS FOR CLIENTS

- Inner-healing
- Deliverance

What Do We Expect from YOU as a Covenant Partner?

- Adherence to the WFI ministry model.
- Prayerful consideration of a level of monthly or annual financial partnership with WFI (in the next fiscal year).
- Offering freedom sessions for clients on a regular basis.
- Annual report/“check-in” that helps us to know how to continue to serve you in the most effective way possible.
- An understanding that WFI certified trainers need to equip your initial “core” team. This ensures that the Wellsprings DNA is embedded into your team. From that point on, the church can chose to train more workers inside the church to multiply (or send them to training conferences). WFI asks that churches outside your group are trained by WFI certified trainers to preserve the integrity of the model. They can contact WFI or the nearest WFI Hub location to be trained.
- Commitment to use WFI resources and adherence to copyright laws.

How You Can Become a Covenant Partner

After a “core” team has been trained by WFI, please prayerfully consult with your leadership and then complete this document and return it to WFI. Once you have met the required steps and have been approved, we will consider your team a part of “The Wellsprings Network.” If and when clients call our Healing Center in Rock Island, IL to receive ministry and ask if we have a Network location near them, we will be able to refer clients to the closest location to them – which might very well be your team.
